

BYLAWS
OF
SAN DIEGO
CHAPTER OF THE RISK AND INSURANCE MANAGEMENT SOCIETY, INC.

Exhibit A to these bylaws includes detailed information about the Association's membership classes and criteria.

Article I—General

1. Name. The name of this organization is the San Diego Chapter of the Risk and Insurance Management Society, Inc., hereinafter called the “Chapter.” The Chapter functions as a regional division of the Risk and Insurance Management Society, Inc., hereinafter called the “Association.”
2. Territory and Location. The Chapter operates and serves members within the territory approved by the Association, and its Principal Office is located at such place as determined by the Chapter’s Board of Directors, hereinafter called the “Board.”
3. Purposes. The purposes of the Chapter include:
  - a. providing opportunities for dialogue, education, advancement, and improvement in the risk management discipline through meetings, seminars, communications, publications, and other programs and activities;
  - b. articulating and advocating the interests of the risk management discipline before legislative, administrative, and judicial branches of government; and
  - c. promulgating policies and conducting activities for the betterment of all those individuals or organizations involved in some aspect of the risk management discipline.

Further, the Chapter shall support and adhere to the objectives, code of ethics, policies and other standards established by the Association.

4. Restrictions. All policies and activities of the Chapter must be consistent with:
  - a. applicable government antitrust, trade regulation or other requirements, and
  - b. applicable tax-exemption requirements, including the requirement that the Chapter not be organized for profit and that no part of its net earnings inure to the benefit of any private individual.

Article II—Membership

1. Membership Eligibility.

- a. Membership in the Chapter is limited to individuals in good standing of the Association who are in compliance with the Association’s rules and regulations and who have paid membership dues to the Chapter. Except for Professional Members, the Chapter may offer a Chapter-only membership. A Chapter-only member is not entitled to the Association’s membership benefits.
- b. Revocation or suspension of membership by the Association automatically constitutes revocation or suspension of membership in the Chapter. This section does not apply to Chapter-only members.

The Chapter may recognize only those membership classes established by the Association. The criteria for each membership class are set by the Association. If the Association changes or adds any membership class or criteria, those changes or additions will be automatically incorporated into these Bylaws. The Association’s current membership classes and criteria appear in Exhibit 1 to these Bylaws.

Professional Members will not solicit or promote their Risk Management products or services to other Professional Members.

2. Resignation. A member may resign by submitting a written resignation to the Chapter Secretary; resignation does not relieve a member from liability for the full annual dues or other obligations accrued and unpaid as of the date of resignation.
3. Expulsion. A member is automatically expelled without action of the Board for failure to meet the eligibility requirements for membership. The Board may expel a member for other reasons upon a two-thirds (2/3), affirmative vote of the entire Board if the member (a) is provided with advance written notice, including the reason for the proposed expulsion; (b) is given an opportunity to contest the proposed expulsion in writing or in person before the Board; and (c) is given final written notice of the Board’s decision. Before beginning expulsion proceedings against a member, the Board shall consult with the Association to determine if another course of action is advisable.
4. Dues. A member shall pay Association and Chapter dues. The Association establishes the dues for each membership class. The Board establishes Chapter membership dues for individual membership classes. The Board shall determine whether members must pay Chapter dues to the Association’s principal office, or directly to the Chapter. A member who is more than sixty (60) days delinquent in paying membership dues forfeits all rights and privileges of membership and is expelled. The Chapter does not refund dues.

Article III—Membership Meetings and Voting

1. Annual Membership Meeting. The annual membership meeting takes place no later than October of each year at a date and place to be determined by the Board.
2. Regular Meetings. The Chapter shall hold at least four (4) regular meetings each year at dates and places to be determined by the Board.
3. Special Meetings. A special meeting of the Chapter may be called under any of the following conditions: (a) the President calls a special meeting; (b) a majority of the Board requests a special meeting; or (c) at least ten (10) members submit a written request to the Secretary for a special meeting. The Secretary shall provide notice of a special meeting as outlined in Article III, Section 4 of these Bylaws. The notice must include a description of the business to be transacted at the special meeting.
4. Notice. The Secretary shall provide notice of a meeting to voting members at least ten (10) days before the meeting by postal or other delivery, facsimile, e-mail, or any other electronic means.
5. Voting. Professional Members, Transitional Members, Retired Members, and Associate Members of the Association are eligible to vote on membership matters. Voting at membership meetings may be in person or by proxy with each voting member having a single vote. A majority of members voting in person or by proxy where a quorum is present carries an action. Members may vote without a meeting on any matter presented by the Board where a quorum participates and the votes are submitted in writing by postal or other delivery, facsimile, e-mail, or any other electronic means. A quorum for membership voting is one third of the voting members.

Article IV—Board of Directors

1. Composition and Eligibility. The Board is comprised of not fewer than five (5), not more than ten (10) elected members. Elected members include Directors and four (4) Officers. The Officers are the President, Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer. Professional Members and Retired Members are eligible to stand for election as Directors or Officers. A Professional Member who becomes a Transitional Member while serving as a Director or Officer may finish the term, but may not stand for re-election while still a Transitional Member. Board shall also include up to two (2) Associate Advisors.

2. General Powers. The Board shall carry out the objectives and purposes of the Chapter. To this end, the Board may exercise all powers of the Chapter. The Board is subject to the restrictions and obligations set forth in these Bylaws.
3. Election. The Nominating Committee shall prepare and deliver a slate of Director, Associate Advisor and Officer candidates to the Secretary no later than August 31 unless approved by majority vote of the Board. The Secretary shall publish the names of the Director, Associate Advisor and Officer candidates to the voting members of the Chapter no later than October 31. The Directors and Officers are elected by one third of those voting members.
4. Terms. A Board member serves a one (1) year term beginning on January 1 and ending upon the expiration of the term or when the Board members' successor is elected and installed. Directors and Officers may serve successive terms. An Associate Advisor serves one (1), two (2) year term beginning on January 1 and ending upon the expiration of the term.
5. Vacancies. The Board may fill any vacancy on the Board for the unexpired portion of the term.
6. Removals or Resignations. A Board member may be removed by (a) two-thirds (2/3) of the members voting where a quorum is present, or (b) three-quarters (3/4) of the full Board, with the Board member proposed to be removed not voting. A Board member proposed to be removed (a) must be provided with an advance fifteen (15) day written notice from an Officer of the Board, including the reason for the proposed removal; (b) must have an opportunity to contest the proposed removal in writing or in person; and (c) must be given final written notice of the removal decision. A Board member may resign at any time by providing written notice to an Officer of the Board.
7. Compensation. A Board member may not receive compensation for services but may be reimbursed for expenses.
8. Officers' Duties. The President shall preside at the annual membership meeting, all regular Chapter meetings, all special Chapter meetings, and all meetings of the Board. If the President is not available, the Vice President shall preside in place of the President. The Secretary shall record all official actions of the Board, shall issue all notices of meetings, and shall keep a register of the Chapter's membership. The Treasurer shall supervise the financial operations of the Chapter, including the receipt, deposit, and disbursement of all monies held in the name of the Chapter. These duties may be delegated upon approval of the Board.
9. Meetings and Voting. Whenever the Board must vote on a matter under these Bylaws or otherwise, this section will apply.
  - a. Meetings of the Board are called by the President. Meetings may be held

- telephonically or electronically as long as each Board member can hear the others.
- b. A majority of the Board forms a quorum; a majority of votes is required to carry a matter where a quorum is present. Proxy voting by Board members is not permitted.
  - c. Board members may vote without a meeting on any matter where a quorum participates and the votes are submitted in writing by postal or other delivery, facsimile, e-mail, or any other electronic means. An action taken by such a vote must be memorialized by a written consent, which is approved by all Board members who voted in support of the action, and describes the action taken and authorized.
  - d. The Associate Advisor does participate in voting actions of the Board.

Article V—Committees

1. Nominating Committee. The Nominating Committee is comprised of no less than three (3) and not more than five (5) members, all of whom are appointed by the President with the approval of the Board. Professional Members, Transitional Members, Retired Members, and Associates of the Chapter are eligible to serve on the Nominating Committee. Only a Professional Member is eligible to serve as the Nominating Committee chair. A Nominating Committee member serves a two (2) year term beginning on March 1 and ending upon the expiration of the term or when a successor has been appointed and installed. The Board shall fill any vacancy on the Nominating Committee for the unexpired portion of the term. The Nominating Committee shall identify and recruit eligible Board candidates and shall present a slate of candidates to the Secretary no later than August 31 unless approved by majority vote of the board.
2. Other Committees. The Board may establish other committees to carry on the affairs of the Chapter. The composition of each committee and manner of election of its members are determined by the Board. The rules in these Bylaws governing the Board also apply to committees of the Board.

Article VI—Merger and Dissolution

1. Merger with Another Society Chapter. Upon a majority vote of all Chapter members eligible to vote, the Chapter may merge with another Association chapter. The Chapter must provide Chapter members with at least thirty (30) days to cast their votes. If the merger is approved, the Chapter members will become members of the newly merged chapter. Upon the merger, the Board shall cause (a) the Chapter's outstanding financial obligations to be settled and (b) any remaining assets to be transferred to the newly merged chapter. In no event may any assets inure to the benefit of or be distributed to any member, Director, Officer, or employee of the Chapter.

2. Dissolution of the Chapter. Upon a majority vote of all Chapter members eligible to vote, the Chapter may dissolve. The Chapter must provide Chapter members with at least thirty (30) days to cast their votes. If the dissolution is approved, the Board shall cause (a) the Chapter's outstanding financial obligations to be settled and (b) any remaining assets to be transferred to the Association. In no event may any assets inure to the benefit of or be distributed to any member, Director, Officer, or employee of the Chapter.

Article VII—Miscellaneous

1. Books and Records. The Chapter shall keep books and records of its financial accounts, meeting minutes, and membership lists. The Chapter shall make those books and records available to the Association at any time.
2. Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Chapter begins on January 1 and ends on December 31.
3. Reports to the Association. The Board shall submit the names and contact information of all Officers and Directors to the Association immediately upon election.
4. Contracts. The Board may authorize an Officer to enter into or execute any contract on behalf of the Chapter. Without such authorization, no person may bind the Chapter under any contract or agreement, may pledge the Chapter's credit, or may render the Chapter liable for any purpose or amount.
5. Conflict-of-Interest Policy. The Board shall adopt a conflict-of-interest policy and annual disclosure process that applies to all Officers, Directors, and volunteers of the Chapter.
6. Government Filings. The Board shall cause all applicable governmental filings, including annual reports and tax returns, to be submitted by their required deadlines.
7. Amendments. Amendments to these Bylaws are made by (a) a majority of the members voting where a quorum is present, or (b) three-quarters (3/4) of the full Board.
8. Parliamentary Procedure. Except as provided for elsewhere in these Bylaws, all matters of parliamentary procedure are governed by Roberts Rules of Order.
9. Effective Date. These Bylaws are effective as of [January 10, 2025].

Exhibit A—Association Membership Classes and Criteria

1. Membership Qualifications. A person or organization that is involved in or associated with the risk management discipline is eligible for Society membership.
2. Regular Membership. A person who holds a membership in one of the classes described in this is eligible to vote and may serve in any Society-elected or Society-appointed capacity. For purposes of these bylaws, a person who holds one of these membership categories and who pays regular dues is a Regular Member.
  - a. Organizational Membership. An organization that employs a person with risk management responsibilities is eligible for organizational membership. For its dues, an Organizational Member may designate two Professional Members. The Primary Professional Member exercises the Organizational Member’s voting rights in the Society. A Secondary Professional Member may exercise the Organizational Member’s voting rights only in the absence of the Primary Professional Member. An Organizational Member may designate additional Professional Members for a fee set by the Board of Directors.
    - i. Professional Member. A person who is employed by or otherwise works exclusively for an Organizational Member and who provides risk management services.
  - b. Individual Membership. A person who holds an individual membership is not required to hold a Chapter membership.
    - i. Individual Professional Member. A person who provides risk management services exclusively for one organization is eligible for Individual Professional Membership.
    - ii. Individual Young Professional Member. A person who provides risk management services exclusively for one organization and who is under age 26 is eligible for Individual Young Professional Membership.
    - iii. Individual International Professional Member. A person who provides risk management services exclusively for one organization and who works primarily outside of North America is eligible for Individual International Professional Membership.
3. Non-Voting Membership. Except as provided elsewhere in these Bylaws, a person who holds a membership in one of the classes described in this section 2.3 is not eligible to vote and may not serve in any Society-elected capacity. A person holding one of these memberships may be appointed to serve as a non-voting advisor to a Society committee or council.

- a. Honorary Member. The Board of Directors may confer an Honorary Membership upon an individual according to terms specified by the Board of Directors. An Honorary Member pays no dues.
- b. Educational Member. A person who is a full-time faculty member at an accredited college or university is eligible for Educational Membership.
- c. Student Member. A person who is enrolled as a full-time student at an accredited college or university and who is not eligible for membership in any other membership class is eligible for Student Membership.
- d. Associate Member. A person who furnishes goods or services to the risk management community and who is not eligible for Professional or Individual Membership is eligible for Associate Membership.
- e. Retired Member. A person who was a Professional Member, Educational Member, or Associate Member and who no longer works in any capacity in the risk management field is eligible for Retired Membership. Except as provided for elsewhere in these Bylaws, a Retired Member retains all the rights and privileges of the Retired Member's membership class upon retirement. A Retired Member may decide not to join a chapter.
- f. Transitional Membership. A Professional Member or Associate Member who separates from employment is eligible for Transitional Membership. A Transitional Membership expires after two years or when a Transitional Member accepts new employment. If a Transitional Member is appointed to a Society committee prior to becoming a Transitional Member, the Transitional Member may complete the remainder of the term. A Transitional Member may not stand for election as a Society officer or director, or be appointed to a Society committee; provided, however, that an Immediate Former President who is a Transitional Member may serve as an ex officio, voting member of the Board of Directors and the Nominating Committee.
